

ZILWA ATTITUDE

Share genuine experiences become an islander.

FACTSHEET

2021-2022 • Applicable as from 1st November 2021 to 31st October 2022

POSITIONING

Facing five islands on the north coast of Mauritius, the 4* Zilwa Attitude is one of a kind. In Creole, Zilwa means islander, and that is what this hotel is all about. Experiences are designed to immerse guests in island life, from sunrise pirogue trips to barbecues on the private island of Gran Zil.

The architecture is bursting with Mauritian soul, taking inspiration from traditional homes and old seaside bungalows found on the island. And the panoramic ocean views are staggering.

The 214 rooms each have their own personality, with different room types to satisfy all guests, from honeymooners to families. Dining here is a real highlight. There are seven restaurants offering Creole, Indian, Sino-Mauritian or European cuisine, as well as a street food cart and two bars.

For children, there are island treasure hunts and the Ayo le Dodo kids' club, which has its own restored boat in the play area. And watersports fans can try paddleboarding, kayaking, snorkelling and canoe trips on the lagoon.

Zilwa Attitude is part of Attitude Hotels' Positive Impact movement, creating a future where travel

The hotel has also its own Bulk Shop, where guests can help themselves to tea and coffee for their room in reusable glass jars.

Positive impact

Now is the time for action. For positivity. To create a future where travel benefits all.

There is always room to grow, new goals to achieve, so Attitude Hotels has launched a Positive Impact movement. We're joining forces with our business partners and our guests to form a collective force for good.

OUR 3 COMMITMENTS

We protect our environment

We support
the local economy

We care about the local community

To commit ourselves is important, but to act is even better! We have removed single-use plastic in our guest experience, and introduced a Bulk Shop so guests can help themselves to tea and coffee for their room in reusable glass jars. We use seasonal and locally-grown produce for our dining wherever possible; and only offer non-motorised watersports for a peaceful and marine-friendly experience.

We also encourage guests to learn about the island's culture through our Otentik (authentic) experiences. This could be having dinner with a local family; meeting locals in fishing villages where time seems to have stood still; or discovering the eclectic street food scene in the capital of Port Louis.

When our guests relax in their Attitude hotel, they can unwind in beautiful spaces with furniture and decorations made right here on the island, helping support our local economy.
